Spring is right around the corner.....

OUR VERMONT WOODS

UVM Extension and VT Dept of Forests, Parks & Recreation has launched a digital resource about Vermont's forests. The site has pages for landowners, professionals, municipalities and educators. Learn more about this new resource hub HERE.

Two Decades ago, the Black River Action Team started as a simple effort to clean junk out of the water. Today, the all-volunteer BRAT conducts hands-on programs & citizen-science activities that improve the quality of our water and our understanding of our relationship to it.

- Collecting water quality data since 2011
- Explores the world of aquatic organisms
- Building rain gardens to divert rainwater
